

Helping Hands

by Teri Coyne

It would be better to think you were made for me
a custom order
handcrafted to please
those hands that have held babies carried groceries
and tarred roofs
were just practicing
for that day in the yard
when you reached out
to steady me
and keep me from falling